How to Use This Plan

A short guide for new readers

This plan walks you through the whole Bible in 900 days, about two and a half years, and stops along the way to teach you the main beliefs of the Christian faith and how to study Scripture for yourself. You do not need any background. You need a Bible, a quiet fifteen to twenty-five minutes, and a willingness to keep coming back.

The Shape of the Plan

The plan has two halves. Year 1, Promise and Shadow, covers Units 1 to 14 and follows the story from creation through the Old Testament and the promises God makes. Year 2, Fulfillment, covers Units 15 to 25 and follows Jesus, the church, and the hope of the new creation. Each unit has its own document with a title page, a contents list, and one entry for every day.

Weeks run from Sunday to Saturday. Six days of reading are followed by a Sabbath rest on Saturday, so every seventh day is lighter. The Weekly Checklist in this appendix lists all 129 weeks so you can see where you are and mark your progress.

A Normal Day

Each reading day follows the same pattern, so you always know what to expect.

- Reading: the passage for the day. Read it slowly, and aloud if you can.
- Setting the Scene: who wrote this, who it was written to, and what is going on.
- Observation: questions that help you notice what the text actually says.
- Interpretation: what the passage means in its own setting.
- Connection: how the passage points to Jesus and fits the whole Bible.
- Application: what to believe, change, or do in response.
- Prayer: two or three prompts to help you respond to God in your own words. The week's memory verse closes each day as a reminder.

Read the passage first, then the guide. If you have more time, read the passage twice before you open the commentary. The guide is there to help you see the text, not to replace it.

Special Days

Sabbath days come every Saturday. You do not read a new passage. You meditate on the memory verse, look back over the week, and answer three reflection questions, the middle one always about Christ. Treat the day as rest, not catch-up.

Doctrinal pauses interrupt the story to study one teaching of the faith, such as the Trinity or justification. They carry an extra section called the Doctrinal Focus. Appendix I lists all 44.

Unit reviews close each unit. They recap what you learned, bring back the unit anchor verse, and ask questions that help it stick. Three reviews fall on a Saturday and combine the review with the Sabbath.

Memory Verses

Each unit has one anchor verse. You do not have to memorize it perfectly. Read it each Saturday, say it aloud a few times, and let it settle. All 25 are listed in Appendix I, together with each week's Sabbath verse.

If You Fall Behind

You will. Everyone does. Do not try to read three days at once. Pick up at the next day and keep going. The checklist is a record, not a grade. If you miss a Sabbath, skip it and move on. If you miss a long stretch, start again at the beginning of the current unit and read at a gentler pace. A plan you finish slowly is better than one you abandon.

Studying the Bible on Your Own

The daily guides use a simple three-part method you can use anywhere in the Bible.

- Observe: what does the text say? Note who, what, where, when, and the words that repeat.
- Interpret: what did it mean to its first readers? Read the verses around it before you decide.
- Apply: what does it call me to believe, love, or do?

Add one more question every time: where is Christ in this passage? Jesus taught that the whole Bible speaks of him (Luke 24:27). The question will not always have a quick answer, but asking it will change how you read.

Reading With Others

This plan works well in a small group, a family, or with one friend. Agree on a day each week, usually the Sabbath, to talk about the week. Share one thing you noticed, one thing you did not understand, and one way you will respond. Write your questions down. Bring the hard ones to a pastor or a mature Christian. Confusion is a normal part of learning.

Bible Translation

The guides quote and refer to the English Standard Version (ESV), but any faithful translation will work. They give references and brief quotations, but they do not print the full passage, so keep your Bible open.

What Else Is in This Appendix

- An Author's Note: where the plan comes from and where its author stands.
- The Plan at a Glance: every unit with its days and weeks.
- Memory Verses in Order: every Sabbath verse and unit verse, in the order you meet them.
- Doctrinal Pauses: an index of the 44 teaching days.
- The Psalms in This Plan: why the Psalms are woven through all 900 days.
- Weekly Checklist: all 129 weeks, Sunday to Saturday.
- Glossary: short definitions of the key terms used in the plan.

An Author's Note

Where this plan comes from, and what you should know before you trust it

This plan is meant for a person in the first years of following Jesus. It walks through the whole Bible in 900 days, stops now and then to teach the beliefs of the Christian faith, and tries to show you how to read Scripture for yourself. The name is a humble one. A catechism is a tool for teaching new believers what the church believes, and that is the job I hope this plan does.

Before you spend two and a half years with it, you should know who wrote it and where he is standing. Every teacher stands somewhere, and a guide that pretends to stand nowhere is not being honest with you.

Where I Am Coming From

I come from the evangelical tradition, with Reformed instincts. I believe the Bible is the word of God, true and trustworthy from beginning to end. I believe in one God in three persons, in the full deity and full humanity of Jesus, in his death in the place of sinners and his bodily resurrection, and in salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. My teaching leans toward the sovereignty of God in salvation and the sufficiency of Christ, and I do not want to hide that.

The framework behind the plan is called progressive covenantalism, which I learned chiefly from Peter Gentry and Stephen Wellum in their book Kingdom through Covenant. The idea is simple to state. The Bible tells one story, and God tells it through a series of covenants: with creation and Adam, with Noah, with Abraham, with Israel at Sinai, with David, and finally the new covenant in Christ. Each covenant builds on the one before it and points ahead to the next. Jesus fulfills them all.

That idea explains the shape of the plan. Year 1, Promise and Shadow, moves through the covenants one at a time. Year 2, Fulfillment, follows Jesus, the church, and the new creation. Many of the units carry the names of covenants. The Connection section of a daily guide asks how a passage leads to Christ. The middle question on each Sabbath day is always about him. These are choices that come straight from the framework.

Not every Christian reads the Bible this way. Some hold that God has one covenant of grace unfolding through history, with Israel and the church closely joined. Others distinguish sharply between God's purposes for Israel and for the church. Those traditions have produced faithful, Bible-loving people, and they will sometimes read a passage differently than I do. Where it matters I have tried to say so. Where I have not, you may need to notice it yourself.

I have also tried to avoid the private vocabulary of any one camp. The goal is accessible depth: enough substance to feed a growing believer, without requiring you to join a side before you can read a page.

Decisions You Should Know About

A plan like this makes hundreds of choices on the reader's behalf. Most are invisible. These are the ones I think you should see.

The story is organized by covenant. The units follow the covenants, not the order of the books in your Bible. That is a way of reading the Bible, not the only way.

The reading order is a decision. The plan is not in canonical order. Job sits between Abraham and the Exodus, following the common view that its setting is patriarchal, though the book does not date itself and scholars differ. The Psalms are woven through the whole plan. The Wisdom books come after David and Solomon. The Gospels are read in the order Matthew, Luke, John, and Mark. Hebrews comes before the General Epistles and Revelation. Other orders are reasonable, and where the date or authorship of a book is debated, Appendix II says so.

Christ is the center of every part. Jesus taught that the Law, the Prophets, and the Psalms all speak of him (Luke 24:44). I have read the Old Testament that way throughout. Some readers will feel that I find Christ in places where the original author may not have seen him clearly. I have tried to lean on how the New Testament itself reads the Old, and to be modest where it does not.

The doctrinal pauses reflect my judgment. The 44 doctrinal days cover what I think a new believer most needs, plus the teachings the story itself raises. Where Christians have long agreed, I state it plainly. Where faithful Christians differ, as with the mode and subjects of baptism, I try to describe the positions fairly and say that they differ. I will not always have kept my own view out of it.

The weekly rhythm is built into the calendar. Six days of reading are followed by a day of rest, and the unit boundaries bend around that rhythm. The rest day falls on Saturday only because the plan begins on a Sunday. How Christians should keep the Sabbath or the Lord's Day is a question on which they differ, and the plan does not settle it.

Every guide is a selection. Each daily guide is short, and it leaves out far more than it includes. Choosing what to notice in a passage is already interpretation. Another teacher would choose differently, and the passage is always richer than the guide.

The translation is the English Standard Version. The guides refer to the ESV. Any faithful translation will serve you, and reading in more than one is a good habit.

What I Hold Firmly and What I Hold Loosely

It would be a mistake to treat every sentence in this plan as equally certain. I hold some things with my whole weight and others with an open hand.

I hold these firmly, because the church has confessed them from the beginning and the Bible is plain about them:

- The Scriptures are the word of God and our final authority.
- There is one God, eternally Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- Jesus is fully God and fully man, who died for sinners and rose bodily from the dead.
- We are saved by grace through faith in Christ, not by our own works.
- Jesus will return, and the dead will be raised.

I hold these more loosely, because faithful Christians have disagreed about them and I may be wrong:

- How the covenants relate Israel and the church in every detail.
- The timing and shape of the end of the age.
- The mode and subjects of baptism, and how the Sabbath carries over.
- The date, authorship, and setting of some of the books of the Bible.
- The details of church government and practice.

A Flawed Teacher and a Faithful Word

I am wholeheartedly persuaded that God's word is true. I am not persuaded that I have understood all of it rightly. The daily guides are not Scripture. They are the work of one flawed person, still learning, trying to explain a book that is far greater than he is. I will have made mistakes of fact, of emphasis, and of judgment, and some of them I cannot see.

Because this plan is written to shape what you believe, I owe you a plain warning. A reader who trusts the guide more than the text has been led astray, however good the guide. If anything here disagrees with the passage you are reading, trust the passage. Luke praises the believers in Berea because they received the word eagerly and examined the Scriptures daily to see if what Paul said was so (Acts 17:11). Please read this plan the same way.

Read it with other people. Bring your questions and your disagreements to your own pastor or a mature Christian who knows you. They are in a better position than I am to correct me, and to help you where my tradition and yours part ways. Where I have gotten something wrong, I would rather be corrected than repeated.

This plan stands on the work of many teachers I could never list, whose books, sermons, and commentaries taught me to read the Bible. Whatever is good in it belongs to them and to the Lord who gave them. Whatever is mistaken is mine.

My hope is not that you will agree with me. It is that you will love the Bible, know Jesus, and become a person who can open the Scriptures and read them for yourself. I pray what the psalmist prayed: Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law (Psalm 119:18).

WEEK 50 · DAY 350

2 Kings 6:16 "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

WEEK 51 · DAY 357

Amos 5:24 "But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream."

WEEK 52 · DAY 364

Hosea 2:19 "And I will betroth you to me forever. I will betroth you to me in righteousness and in justice, in steadfast love and in mercy."

WEEK 53 · DAY 371

Jonah 2:9 "But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Salvation belongs to the LORD!"

UNIT VERSE · DAY 377

Hosea 6:6 "For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings."

WEEK 54 · DAY 378

Micah 6:8 "He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?"

Unit 12: Hezekiah, Isaiah and the Assyrian Crisis

WEEK 55 · DAY 385

Isaiah 7:14 "Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

WEEK 56 · DAY 392

Isaiah 9:6 "For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."

WEEK 57 · DAY 399

Isaiah 26:3 "You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you."

WEEK 58 · DAY 406

Isaiah 40:31 "But they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint."

WEEK 59 · DAY 413

Isaiah 53:5 "But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 420

Isaiah 6:3 "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!"

Unit 13: Exile: Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Daniel

WEEK 61 · DAY 427

Jeremiah 2:13 "For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that can hold no water."

WEEK 62 · DAY 434

Jeremiah 17:7-8 "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes."

WEEK 63 · DAY 441

Jeremiah 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope."

WEEK 64 · DAY 448

Jeremiah 31:3 "I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you."

WEEK 65 · DAY 455

Jeremiah 33:3 "Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known."

WEEK 66 · DAY 462

Lamentations 3:22-23 "The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness."

WEEK 67 · DAY 469

Psalm 73:26 "My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever."

WEEK 68 · DAY 476

Ezekiel 18:32 "For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live."

WEEK 69 · DAY 483

Ezekiel 36:26 "And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh."

WEEK 70 · DAY 490

Daniel 3:17-18 "If this be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 495

Jeremiah 31:33 "I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people."

Unit 14: The Return and the Chronicles Perspective

WEEK 71 · DAY 497

Ezra 3:11 "And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever toward Israel."

WEEK 72 · DAY 504

Ezra 7:10 "For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the LORD, and to do it and to teach his statutes and rules in Israel."

WEEK 73 · DAY 511

WEEK 86 · DAY 602

Matthew 28:19-20 "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Unit 16: The New Covenant Inaugurated: Luke

WEEK 87 · DAY 609

Luke 2:11 "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord."

WEEK 88 · DAY 616

Luke 9:23 "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me."

WEEK 89 · DAY 623

Luke 15:7 "Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance."

WEEK 90 · DAY 630

Luke 22:19 "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 633

Luke 19:10 "For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

Unit 17: The New Covenant Inaugurated: John

WEEK 91 · DAY 637

John 1:14 "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth."

WEEK 92 · DAY 644

John 4:24 "God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

WEEK 93 · DAY 651

John 8:12 "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

WEEK 94 · DAY 658

John 14:6 "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 664

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life."

WEEK 95 · DAY 665

John 20:31 "But these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name."

Unit 18: The New Covenant Inaugurated: Mark

WEEK 96 · DAY 672

Mark 1:15 "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel."

WEEK 97 · DAY 679

Mark 9:23 "And Jesus said to him, If you can! All things are possible for one who believes."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 686

Mark 10:45 "For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Unit 19: The New Covenant Applied: Acts

WEEK 99 · DAY 693

Acts 2:42 "And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers."

WEEK 100 · DAY 700

Acts 4:12 "And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

WEEK 101 · DAY 707

Acts 10:43 "To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

WEEK 102 · DAY 714

Acts 16:31 "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household."

WEEK 103 · DAY 721

Acts 20:24 "But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 724

Acts 1:8 "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

Unit 20: The New Covenant Explained: Romans

WEEK 104 · DAY 728

Romans 1:16 "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek."

WEEK 105 · DAY 735

Romans 3:23-24 "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus."

WEEK 106 · DAY 742

Romans 5:8 "But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

WEEK 107 · DAY 749

Romans 10:9 "Because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 752

Romans 8:1 "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

Unit 21: Law, Gospel and Church Life: Galatians, Corinthians

WEEK 108 · DAY 756

Galatians 4:4-5 "But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons."

WEEK 109 · DAY 763

1 Corinthians 1:18 "For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God."

WEEK 110 · DAY 770

1 Corinthians 13:13 "So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

WEEK 111 · DAY 777

1 Corinthians 15:3-4 "For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 783

Galatians 2:20 "I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me."

WEEK 112 · DAY 784

2 Corinthians 12:9 "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."

Unit 22: In Christ: Prison and Pastoral Epistles

WEEK 113 · DAY 791

Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast."

WEEK 114 · DAY 798

Philippians 4:6-7 "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

WEEK 115 · DAY 805

Colossians 3:17 "And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

WEEK 116 · DAY 812

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 818

Colossians 1:15-16 "He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth."

WEEK 117 · DAY 819

2 Timothy 3:16-17 "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work."

Unit 23: The Better Covenant: Hebrews

WEEK 118 · DAY 826

Hebrews 1:3 "He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high."

WEEK 119 · DAY 833

Hebrews 12:1-2 "Let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 836

Hebrews 4:15-16 "For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need."

Unit 24: Faith Lived Out: General Epistles

WEEK 120 · DAY 840

James 1:22 "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves."

WEEK 121 · DAY 847

1 Peter 1:3-4 "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you."

WEEK 122 · DAY 854

2 Peter 3:18 "But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen."

WEEK 123 · DAY 861

1 John 1:9 "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 865

1 John 4:19 "We love because he first loved us."

Unit 25: The New Covenant Consummated: Revelation

WEEK 124 · DAY 868

Revelation 1:17-18 "Fear not, I am the first and the last, and the living one. I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades."

WEEK 125 · DAY 875

Revelation 5:12 "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"

WEEK 126 · DAY 882

Revelation 12:11 "And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death."

WEEK 127 · DAY 889

Revelation 15:3-4 "Great and amazing are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, O King of the nations! Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy."

WEEK 128 · DAY 896

Revelation 22:20-21 "He who testifies to these things says, Surely I am coming soon. Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen."

UNIT VERSE · DAY 899

Revelation 21:3-4 "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

WEEK 129 · DAY 900

2 Corinthians 1:20 "For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory."

The Psalms in This Plan

Why one day in four is a psalm, and what each one is doing

Most of the Bible tells you what God has done. The Psalms are where God's people answer him. For that reason the plan does not save the Psalms for one stretch of the calendar. It weaves them through all 900 days, so that after a long run of narrative, law, prophecy, or letter there is a day when you stop reading about people who prayed and pray alongside them.

The Psalms earn that place. They are among the most quoted books of the Old Testament in the New. Jesus taught that the Psalms speak of him (Luke 24:44). After the Last Supper he and his disciples sang a hymn (Matthew 26:30), traditionally the Hallel, Psalms 113 to 118. On the cross he prayed the opening of Psalm 22 and, at the end, a line from Psalm 31 (Matthew 27:46; Luke 23:46). A plan meant to teach new believers how to speak to God, and not only what to believe about him, needs the Psalms at its heart.

Five Kinds of Day

The plan has five kinds of day. The Psalms are one of them, and the other four are built around them, so it helps to see how they fit together.

READING DAYS	472 days. The main readings that carry the story, the law, the prophets, and the letters.
PSALM DAYS	233 days. One psalm, or a short pair, set beside the surrounding reading.
DOCTRINAL PAUSES	44 days. A passage or two studied for one teaching of the faith.
UNIT REVIEWS	25 in all. Twenty-two take a day of their own, and three are combined with a Sabbath.
SABBATH REST	129, one for every week. In 126 the day is only rest, and in three it is combined with a review.

Psalm days are the second largest category, and on average they fall on a little under two days of each week. The plan was designed around that rhythm: narrative days carry the story forward, and psalm days let you stop and respond.

The Psalms by the Numbers

SHARE OF THE PLAN	233 of 900 days, about one in four.
COVERAGE	All 150 psalms are read at least once.

DIFFERENT READINGS	174. Long psalms are divided (Psalm 119 into several sections, and Psalms 18, 22, 78, 89, 104, and 107 into two) and 48 of the readings come back in a new setting.
PAIRED DAYS	16 days read two short psalms together.
TYPICAL LENGTH	About 16 verses (the middle reading is 13), against about 60 verses for a reading day.
YEAR 1 AND YEAR 2	158 psalm days in Year 1 and 75 in Year 2. The Old Testament is where most of the Psalms were written, and where they most often sit beside a story.
THE LARGEST BLOCK	Unit 9, The Davidic Covenant, has 31 psalm days out of 67.

What a Psalm Day Looks Like

A psalm day has the same seven parts as any reading day, so you always know what to expect. The differences are in emphasis. Because a psalm is a poem, the guide spends less time on events and more on structure, imagery, and the turns of thought. Setting the Scene gives the author, the heading, and the occasion if one is known. Observation points out repeated words, shifts of mood, and the line where a complaint becomes trust. Connection shows where the psalm points to Christ or where the New Testament quotes it. The Prayer at the end is only an echo. The psalm itself is the prayer.

The reading is short on purpose. A psalm is meant to be read aloud, slowly, and read again. You are not meant to finish it so much as stay with it.

Five Jobs the Psalms Do

They answer the story. Narrative shows what people did and what God did. The Psalms give the inner voice. After David's sin with Bathsheba and Nathan's rebuke, the plan gives you Psalms 32 and 51. After Absalom's revolt, it gives you Psalm 63. You do not only read that David repented. You hear how he prayed.

They interpret the story. Some psalms retell Israel's history as worship: Psalms 78, 105, 106, 114, 135, and 136. Others were written in the middle of a crisis you are reading about. Psalms 46, 48, and 76 stand beside Sennacherib's siege of Jerusalem. Psalm 90, attributed to Moses, comes among the first chapters of Numbers. Psalm 95 warns against a hard heart just after Israel's unbelief at Kadesh in Numbers 13 and 14. The Psalter becomes a commentary written by the people who lived it.

They carry Christ through the Old Testament. The New Testament leans on the Psalms to explain who Jesus is. In Unit 19 you read Psalms 2, 16, and 110 just after the apostles preach and pray from them. In Unit 22, you read Psalm 68, which Paul quotes in Ephesians 4 to describe the ascended Christ. In Unit 23, Psalms 95, 40, 110, and 22 sit beside Hebrews, which quotes all four. The psalm gives the first sound, and the New Testament gives the full chord.

They teach the whole range of prayer. The Psalms contain praise, thanksgiving, confession, lament, trust, wisdom, and anger. A new believer often assumes that only polite prayers are allowed. The Psalms say otherwise. They are included in all their range, and the hard ones are not skipped. Psalms 58, 109, and 137 call on God to judge those who do violence. The guide reads them honestly, as the cry of the oppressed handed over to God, and then in the light of Christ, who prayed for his enemies and who will judge the world in righteousness.

They set the pace. Heavy stretches of law, genealogy, and prophecy are followed by a short day of poetry. That keeps the plan humane. It is also a lesson in its own right: Scripture is meant to be prayed as well as studied.

How the Psalms Were Placed

No psalm was dropped in at random. Each one was set beside a reading it illuminates, using four kinds of placement.

Beside the event. The psalm is paired with the moment it most naturally belongs to, such as Psalms 32 and 51 after Nathan confronts David, or Psalm 63 after Absalom's revolt.

Beside the theme. The psalm takes up what the surrounding books are saying. Beside Job, the plan places the psalms of the suffering righteous: Psalms 10, 13, 22, 73, and 88. Beside Proverbs, it places Psalms 19 and 119 on the word of God. Beside Ecclesiastes, it places Psalms 49 and 73 on wealth and the brevity of life. Beside the Song of Solomon, it places Psalm 45.

Beside the quotation. When a New Testament author quotes a psalm, the plan places that psalm close by, so that you meet the original in its own setting before you see how it is used. This is one reason the Psalms cluster beside Acts and Hebrews.

At the edges. Psalms 1 and 2 are the front door of the Psalter, and they open the first run of David's psalms in Unit 9 (Days 237 and 239), return beside the Sermon on the Mount and the Transfiguration in Unit 15, and in Unit 25 as Revelation opens and as the nations rage. The last two psalm days of the plan, Days 897 and 898, are Psalm 72:18-19, the doxology that ends the second book of the Psalter, and Psalm 150, the final psalm of the Psalter itself.

Why Some Psalms Come Back

You will meet some psalms more than once, and that is on purpose. A psalm read beside a different story means something different. Psalm 2 appears four times: on Day 239 beside David's throne, on Day 586 beside the Father's voice at the Transfiguration, on Day 696 beside the prayer of the church in Acts 4, and on Day 884 as Revelation shows the nations raging. Psalm 22 appears five times: twice beside Job, then beside David, beside Isaiah's servant, and beside Hebrews. Psalm 110 appears five times, once on a doctrinal day.

When a psalm comes back, the guide gives it a new angle suited to the new setting. If you think, "I have read this before," you are right. Read it again, and notice what is different around it. Repetition is how the Bible itself teaches, and a psalm you already know is an old friend and not filler.

The Psalter's Five Books

The Psalms are gathered into five books: Psalms 1 to 41, 42 to 72, 73 to 89, 90 to 106, and 107 to 150. Each book ends with a short burst of praise called a doxology, and Psalm 150 closes the whole collection. The plan does not follow that order, because the order it follows is the order of the story. It does touch all five books, and it ends in the Psalter's own closing notes.

The Psalms Unit by Unit

UNIT	TITLE	PSALMS IN THIS UNIT
1	Creation and the Covenant of Works	Creation psalms (8, 19:1-6, 29, 33:1-9, 65, and 104) answer Genesis 1 and 2 with praise.
2	Common Grace and the Noahic Covenant	Psalms 9, 33:10-22, and 36:5-12 on God's care for the world and his judgment of the nations.
3	The Abrahamic Covenant	Psalm 105 retells the covenant with Abraham. Psalms 121, 124, 125, and 37 teach trust. Psalms 47 and 66 look to the nations.
4	Job: Suffering and Sovereignty	Psalms of the suffering righteous (10, 13, 22, 73, 88, 17, and 26) beside Job.
5	The Mosaic Covenant I: Exodus	Psalms 106, 77, 114, and 105:26-45 retell the exodus as worship.
6	The Mosaic Covenant II: Tabernacle and Holiness	Who may approach a holy God: Psalms 15, 24, 51, 50, 40, 91, and 92.
7	Wilderness: Numbers and Deuteronomy	Psalm 90 and Psalms 95, 96, 99, and 100 beside Numbers. Psalms 78 and 119 beside Deuteronomy.
8	Conquest and Settlement	God's victories and keeping in the land (Psalms 114, 46, 76), with prayers of trust and repentance (16, 23, 130).

9	The Davidic Covenant	The largest block. The psalms of David beside his story (32 and 51, 63, 34) and the royal and Zion psalms (2, 20, 21, 45, 72, 48, 84, 87, 101).
10	Wisdom Literature	Psalms 19 and 119 beside Proverbs. Psalms 49 and 73 beside Ecclesiastes. Psalm 45 beside the Song of Solomon.
11	The Divided Kingdom and Early Prophets	Laments and cries for justice (42 to 44, 58, 82, 94, 109, 74, 77) beside the prophets' protests.
12	Hezekiah, Isaiah and the Assyrian Crisis	Psalms 46, 48, 75, 76, 80, 81, and 83 beside Assyria's threat. Psalms 22, 69, and 89 beside Isaiah's servant.
13	Exile: Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Daniel	Laments of exile (89:38-52, 137, 79), songs of hope (85, 102, 103, 106, 107), and ten of the fifteen Songs of Ascents.
14	The Return and the Chronicles Perspective	Songs of return (85, 107, 126), the closing praise psalms (145 to 150), the reign psalms (96 to 99), and temple psalms (115, 132, 135, 136).
15	The New Covenant Inaugurated: Matthew	Psalm 1 beside the Sermon on the Mount. Psalms 146 and 147 beside the healings. Psalms 2 and 110 beside the Transfiguration. Psalm 118 in Holy Week.
16	The New Covenant Inaugurated: Luke	Praise (113, 116, 117) and trust under pressure (27, 28, 31, 41, 55) beside Luke.
17	The New Covenant Inaugurated: John	Light (36, 43), the shepherd (23), and God's nearness (139, 100, 103) beside John.
18	The New Covenant Inaugurated: Mark	Psalms read beside Mark's stories: 107:23-43 (the storm), 89 (the Davidic king), 118:19-29 (the cornerstone), and 69 (the righteous sufferer).
19	The New Covenant Applied: Acts	Psalms 2, 16, and 110, which Peter preaches from, and mission psalms (67, 87, 117, 96, 98, 100).
20	The New Covenant Explained: Romans	Psalms 32, 143, 19, and 117, which Paul quotes in Romans, with 130 and 116.
21	Law, Gospel and Church Life: Galatians, Corinthians	Psalms 33, 62, 111, 112, and 133 on trust, generosity, and unity.
22	In Christ: Prison and Pastoral Epistles	The ascended Christ (68, 110) and trust under pressure (27, 138, 139).

23	The Better Covenant: Hebrews	Psalms 95, 40, 110, and 22, which Hebrews quotes.
24	Faith Lived Out: General Epistles	Speech, integrity, and the cornerstone (12, 15, 24, 34, 118:1-18, 31:1-8) beside the General Epistles.
25	The New Covenant Consummated: Revelation	Psalms 1, 19, and 29 at the opening. Throne psalms (2, 46, 93, 97) before the bowls. Psalms 72:18-19 and 150 at the close.

Reading a Psalm Day Well

- Read the psalm aloud, and then read it again. These were written to be heard.
- Notice the turn. Many psalms begin in complaint and end in trust, and the turn is where the lesson is.
- Let a hard psalm be hard. Read to the end before you decide what it means.
- Pray the psalm in your own words after you read it, using its shape but your own life.
- Sing it if you can. Many hymns are psalms set to music.
- Ask the question this whole plan asks: where is Christ in this psalm?

REFERENCE

Glossary

Key terms used in the plan

Apostle. One sent by Jesus with his authority. The term refers chiefly to the Twelve and to Paul, whose teaching is the foundation of the church.

Atonement. What God does through the death of Jesus to deal with sin and reconcile sinners to himself.

Canon. The collection of books recognized as Scripture. The Protestant Bible has 66 books, 39 in the Old Testament and 27 in the New.

Christ. A title meaning "anointed one," the Greek form of "Messiah." It names Jesus as the promised king and savior.

Church. The people God has gathered to himself through Christ. The word describes both the whole body of believers and a local gathering of them.

Covenant. A binding relationship God establishes with his people, with promises and obligations. The Bible tells its story through covenants with Noah, Abraham, Israel at Sinai, David, and the new covenant in Christ.

Creation. God bringing everything into being from nothing by his word, and the world he made and sustains.

Election. God's choice of a people for himself according to his own purpose and grace.

Eschatology. The study of last things: Christ's return, the resurrection, judgment, and the new creation.

Exile. The removal of Israel and Judah from the promised land to Assyria and Babylon, a result of covenant unfaithfulness. It also describes humanity's separation from God.

Exodus. God's rescue of Israel from slavery in Egypt. It becomes the pattern for later salvation in the Bible.

Faith. Trust in God and his promises, resting on what he has said and done, above all in Christ.

Fall. Adam and Eve's disobedience in Eden, through which sin and death entered the world.

Gospel. The good news that Jesus lived, died for sinners, rose again, and reigns, and that all who trust him are forgiven and made new.

Grace. God's undeserved kindness toward sinners.

Holiness. God's moral perfection and his separateness from all that is common or sinful. His people are called to be holy as well.

Incarnation. The Son of God taking on a full human nature in Jesus, while remaining fully God.

Inspiration. The conviction that Scripture is God-breathed. God spoke through human authors so that their writings are his word (2 Timothy 3:16).

Justification. God declaring sinners righteous in his sight because of Christ, received by faith alone.

Kingdom of God. God's rule and reign, present in Jesus and one day to be complete when he returns.

Law. God's instruction to Israel, especially in the first five books. It can also refer to the whole of the Old Testament.

Messiah. The promised anointed king from David's line. Christians confess that Jesus is that king.

Progressive covenantalism. A way of reading the Bible that sees God's covenants unfolding step by step, each building on the last, and all reaching their fulfillment in Christ and the new covenant.

Prophecy. God's word spoken through a prophet. It includes calls to repentance and promises of what is to come, not only prediction.

Propitiation. A sacrifice that turns away God's wrath. In the New Testament it describes Christ's death in the place of sinners.

Providence. God's continuing care for and rule over all things, working all events toward his purposes.

Redemption. Rescue by payment. The Bible uses it for God freeing his people from slavery and from sin.

Repentance. Turning from sin to God, with a change of mind, heart, and life.

Resurrection. Being raised bodily from death. Christ was raised first, and believers will follow when he returns.

Sabbath. A day of rest set apart to God, rooted in creation. It points to the rest God gives his people in Christ.

Sacrifice. An offering given to God. The Old Testament sacrifices pointed ahead to the once-for-all sacrifice of Christ.

Salvation. God's rescue of his people from sin, death, and judgment, and the new life he gives.

Sanctification. The lifelong work of the Holy Spirit making believers more like Christ.

Sin. Rebellion against God, whether in what we do, fail to do, or desire.

Trinity. The belief that there is one God who eternally exists as three persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Typology. The way persons, events, and institutions in the Old Testament foreshadow Christ and his work.

Wisdom. In the Bible, skill in living under God's rule, beginning with the fear of the Lord.

Worship. Honoring God for who he is, in praise, prayer, obedience, and all of life.
